November Meeting

Attendance:

- Jill Kilby

- Bridget Anders

- Paulina Allen

- Discussed the need for an open meeting in 2019 for anyone that wants to attend, join the committee or where we can recruit for volunteers.

- Contact Ed or Roy and request time to go over the survey results and any concerns from them, as well as update the website information since it does not reflect the right members and information.

Christmas Event:

- Get a 20' trailer and do hay rides. the vendor that we found does have insurance, but is not a business, so he has it on the tractor.

- Talked about a general release of liability that maybe residents can sign for any events that we have, located on the River Stone HOA website.

- Features of the Event:

    - Photos with Santa

    - Cookies, Cider, and Hot Cocoa station

    - Scavenger Hunt

    - Holiday Lights competition

    - Tractor Hay rides

    - Caroling

- Make sure we CC Ed or Lisa on this so they can approve the event

- Photography / Photos with Santa: ask Nichole Baker to do this service. Offer $50/hour for taking pictures and she can exchange her business info and additional prints

-

- for a charge. She must be able to provide the digital rights to one photo of their choice.

-How much can we spend on the Holiday Event? We have a 2500 dollar limit on the card in general; 1867 left in the budget and we want to have a reserve of 300 for end of year holiday event for committee only.

- Time breakdown:

  - 5:30-6:30 Tractor rides

  - 6:00-7:00 Caroling

  - 4:30 -6:30 Photos with Santa

You've been Elfed:

- 1 to 2 per street on smaller roads, 2-4 on longer roads

- No more than $200 allocated to this budget

- Decided on Popcorn and Hershey Kisses "reindeer poops"

Survey:

- Post survey now and leave it open until the 30th and then shut it down

- Analyze data and provide results to Board

- Try to meet with the board in December before year end to approve of all concerns and comments, and discuss 2019 plans as well.

- Discussed next meeting: Dec 3rd

Meeting Adjourned